

2009 Code Enforcement Update

Effective January 1, 2009, plans submitted shall comply with the 2009 North Carolina Building Code unless specifically identified on the plans.

From January 1 to June 30, 2009 either the 2006 or the 2009 code can be used. After June 30, 2009 only the 2009 North Carolina Code will be in effect.

For sealed plans, please identify the appropriate edition on the construction documents in the Appendix B information on the first or second sheet of plans. North Carolina Administrative Code and Policies contains an Appendix B.
