- Applicant should become familiar with applicable design guidelines before completing application.
Pre-application meetings with HRC staff are required PRIOR to application submittal – consult HRC meeting schedule for deadline. Failure to do this may result in your hearing being delayed.
Fourteen copies of the complete application must be received in the Development Services Department by 10:00 a.m. on the application deadline.

The Authorized Practice Committee of the North Carolina State Bar has issued an opinion (Advisory Opinion 2006-1) stating in essence that appearance in a representative capacity before quasi-judicial bodies of local government is the practice of law within the meaning of NCGS 84-2.1 and 84-4, which prohibit the unauthorized practice of law.

City Planning staff may not provide legal advice to applicants. Applicants are advised to consult the appropriate sections of the North Carolina General Statutes, Asheville City Code, and the Rules of Procedure for the Historic Resources Commission, or to consult with an attorney, if more information is needed.

The undersigned signifies that the above is true.
