Finance Committee

What's happening now?

The City of Asheville is studying the Aston Park Tennis Center operations and accepting public comment September 4 – 30, 2014. See the public comment link below under Supporting Documents. A Focus Group consisting of citizen volunteers is processing all public comment to be included in a report to the Asheville City Council Finance Committee.

The public is invited to comment on the following.

- Fee increase comparison to incrementally increase Tennis Center fees over a 3-year period and a 4-year period. See the fee table below under Supporting Documents.
- Tennis Center maintenance operations
- Tennis Center management, revenue and cost saving opportunities, and general operations

Why it's happening

The Asheville City Council Finance Committee is considering business plan and operation options for the Aston Park Tennis Center in conjunction with the City's Finance Department and the Parks and Recreation Department.
