SPECIAL EVENTS

Black History Month Events

In honor of Black History month, Asheville Parks & Recreation Department staff will be sponsoring a number of events for the community. This year's theme is "Uniting our City", which features something for everyone. This month long celebration includes an educational film, presentations, musical performances, and spoken word acts all centered on the African-American Culture. For a full list of events, visit www.ashevillenc.gov/parks. All events are FREE.
