Committee Descriptions

The Transit and Greenway Committees each consists of at least seven members and up to eleven members. All are appointed by the Multimodal Transportation Commission. The terms of office are three years.

GREENWAY COMMITTEE

The mission of the City of Asheville's Greenway Committee is to advise the Multimodal Transportation Commission and City staff on implementation of a system of greenways within Asheville by integrating City and County Parks and Transportation plans while educating and engaging the public and advocating for funding. The Committee meets the 2nd Thursday of each month at 3:30 p.m. in the 1st floor conference room of City Hall. The normal length of the meeting is one to two hours.

TRANSIT COMMITTEE

The Committee functions as an advisory board to the Multimodal Transportation Commission and to the City staff on matters affecting the transit system and its operation. The Asheville Transit Committee will meet the first Tuesday of every month from 3:30 to 5:30 PM. The meetings will be held at City Hall in the first floor conference room.
